Mr. Krswick is and always has been great on the soft-sawder apologetic racket; one would almost imagine that in the days of early infancy he made a most abject apology for having been born. Perhaps that was required-but who can tell? There are even more (or less) illustrious citizens than Mr. Krawicz earning a golden reputation in this colony on nothing, and the long expected cataclysm has not yet come, But the honorable gentleman's quasi-apologies to the shareholders of the Hongkong Fire Insurance Co. were of a character so amusingly unique as to more than justify a passing notice. In presenting the Company's, or rather the General Managers' report, and statement of accounts for the past year, the worthy Chairman, with bitter tears in his voice, remarked that it was a matter of regret to the Consulting Committee and the General Managers, as of course i must be to the shareholders, that it was not possible to present a better report | the saleastic sucers of our old friend ! IT will be remembered, says the N C. It has now transpired that Governor Tian having arrived at Ch'engtu, the capital of Szechenan, immediately gave orders to all the large bankers of the city to produce their books, with the intention of finding out how much money the Viceroy Liu Ping-chang had in their possession. There seems to have been only one item of Tis. 3,000 to the Vicerov's name, all other large sums were put against the sumame of "Liu." but with no name strached, and to questions asked by the Governor, the babkers refused to answer. There were also one Tantai, two prefects and three chahsians removed from their posts and, after an examination, put under the care of the prefect of Chiengtu and confined in his prison. What will become of these efficials and the Viceroy Liu Ping-chang it is hard to conjecture at present, but probably everything will become plain we soon as the Governor's secret memorial on the subject to the Throne shall have appeared in the Gazette. His Excellency T'an started on his return journey Hopeh on the 10th inst, secompanied by his suite of one Tantai (Yil), two chehstens, and a c uple of secretaries, and his guard of some sixty troopers; and will probably arrive at Wuchang by the beginning of next month.

So long as he was attired in the habiliments of everyday life the eccentric comedian of the Lyrics was the same old Kitts Hongkong audiences know so wellthe same inane gestures, the same twisting of the mouth, the same spannodic efforts to be funny-his prin ipal stock-in-trade in most of the farcical comedies in which he takes part. However, it was when he started in at what he doubtless imagines is burleaque that Mr. Kitis asionished the audience. As the Ancient Briton or noble Roman, or whatever his make-up meant, he was decidedly funny, but when he appeared in a woman's frock with a portion of the front put of it purposely left epen, he simply outraged the proprieties and insulted every decent person in the house." Anything more vulgarly coarse and indecently suggestive has nev r been seen on any stage; in fact it was an exhibition that at once placed Mr. Kitts' performance outside the pale of criticism. Tasselli (in tights) a picturesque Miss Jack St. Jack. The best played part, in the piece was the Maria of Miss Marie Brian, a stage-struck slavey, which this clever young actress handled with her customary skill and discretion. Mrs. J. F. Brian was exceedingly amusing as Mrs. Lamb, and contributed in no small measure in keeping the dreasy business alive. The musical efforts were weak all round and, as already noted, the dancing left something to be desired, which was hardly to be wondered at considering the recent steam-launch trips to and from Canton. Laughter was plentiful throughout the evening, but it was not altogether in consequence of either the merits of the burlesque or the quality of the performance, and the managers of the Lyrics' will be wise to promptly expunge this version of " In Town " from their repertoire.

We believe that Mr. Saville Smith has under consideration, the advisability of playing a season in Vancouver if satisfactory arrangements can be made; if not, the Company will return to Hongkong some time in June,-

SIAM NOTES.

Bangkok, March 20th, 1894.

The Phra Chom Klao brought up $100,000 for the Hangkong and Shanghai Bank yesterday. The Linnet returned to Paknam yesterday from her cruise. The Peacock will therefore leave this morning.

In Upper Burma an exceptionally large area is this year under rice cultivation, and the crop is turning out well. Prices have consequently fallen. In Rangoon the price remains low and is considerably below the normal.

An enterprising individual who desires to gain a bold advertisement gratis informs us that a Slamese dwarf, born at Chantaboon, aged 23 years, born with all his senses complete, and on'y three 'pans high, is being exhibited in Bangkok. We lean with gratification that the Makechakkel's cruise has been highly beneficial to His Majesty. For the last day or two the Court have stayed at Koh-si-chang, as Prince Asdong was unwell, but it was intended to resume the cruise as soon as the young Prince had recovered sufficiently to permit it. The foreign community have to mourn the loss of another of its members, Mrs. Cohen being called away a little before dawn yesterday morning, after several months' illness. She was the daughter of Captain Pickering, an officer in the service of the East India Company, and had been resident here with her family for some nine years. The interment last evening was attended by many mourners, Canon Greenstock conducting the service .- Observer ..

His Majesty the King is shortly expected at the Palace to witness a Royal hair cutting. A Chinese coolle employed in the Samsen Rice Mill was set upon and cruelly attacked at 1 Samsen on Sunday morning by the son of an official of the district:

It must have struck many of the distinguished Siamese present at the Royal Courts during the late trial, that their countryman Phra You probably owes his life to a farang whom the Government has so scurvily treated. Were it not for Mr. Morant's excellent work for the defence—repeatedly acknowledged by the President-the learned Counsel would have been hopelessly at sea, and the present verdict might have been reversed. It is a noble revenge to thus repay the ill-treatment he has received at their hands, and will probably strongly appeal to the more intelligent and generous-minded among the Siamese,-Free

We understand that judgment in favour of the contractors Murray Campbell & Co. has been given in the cases with the Siamese Government which was referred to arbitration.

The Chartered Bank of India, Australia, and Chins, has established a branch office on promises belonging to Mesirs Markwald & Co. A special feature of the business is that it is to be worked on a gold basis .- Times.
